ARTICLE 1 - PURPOSE

- 1.01 It is the purpose of this Agreement to promote and maintain mutual understanding and co-operation and to establish an orderly, harmonious collective bargaining relationship between the Employer and its Employees, and to foster and promote the efficient delivery to the community of a high standard of service by the Employer in its capacity as a non-profit organization which relies, to achieve this end, on the contribution of its Employees and volunteers and the financial support of the public.

ARTICLE 2 - RECOGNITION

- 2.01 Subject to Articles 2.03, 2.04 and 2.05, the Employer recognizes the Union as the sole and exclusive bargaining agent for all of its Employees working in community support services in and out of the City of Toronto save and except Supervisors, those above the rank of Supervisors, persons employed in Operations, Finance, Business Intelligence, Human Resources, Executive Administrative Assistant, temporary workers, project workers, students employed during the school vacation period and students referred from an outside agency or government department to work on a specific project.
- 2.02 The word "Employee" where used in this Agreement refers only to the Employees within the aforesaid bargaining unit unless otherwise specifically stated.
- 2.03 a) The term "temporary worker" where used in this Agreement means a person who is employed on a temporary basis, for a period not in excess of six (6) consecutive months, (in the case of pregnancy/parental leave not in excess of eighteen (18) calendar months) in order to:
- i) Fill a temporary vacancy in a bargaining unit position caused by an Employee's or Employees' absence(s) on sick leave, long-term disability, maternity leave, leave of absence, vacation, suspension, compensatory time off, professional development or similar absences in manpower; or
  - ii) Deal with a short-term increase in the bargaining unit work load; or
  - iii) Fill a permanent vacancy in a bargaining unit position until an Employee can be permanently placed or hired to fill the vacancy; or
  - iv) Deal with emergencies.
- b) Temporary workers are excluded from the bargaining unit as defined in Article 2.01 and shall not be covered by any of the terms of this Agreement.
- 2.04 a) The term "project worker" where used in this Agreement means a person who is employed to work for an agreed term of up to twelve (12) consecutive months to work on a specific project or projects funded by grants which are for the purpose of operating the specific project.
- b) Project workers are excluded from the bargaining unit as defined in Article 2.01 and shall not be covered by any of the terms of this Agreement.

- 2.05 The Employer agrees that it shall not employ temporary workers, project workers or students in order to avoid filling an existing permanent vacancy in a bargaining unit position or to avoid filling a newly created bargaining unit position.
- 2.06
- a) The term "full-time Employee" where used in this Agreement means an Employee who is regularly scheduled to work twenty (20) or more hours per week.
  - b) The term "part-time Employee" where used in this Agreement means an Employee who is regularly scheduled to work less than twenty (20) hours per week. An Employee's status as a regular part-time or full-time Employee will be determined twice per fiscal year on April 1 and on October 1 and will be based on a calculation of an average of their weekly hours worked in the six (6) months preceding these dates. For example, employees who have on average worked a minimum of twenty (20) hours a week for the period of April 1 to September 30 will be deemed full-time for the period of October 1 to March 31. Employees who have on average worked less than a minimum of twenty (20) hours a week for the period of April 1 to September 30 will be deemed part-time for the period from October 1 to March 31.
- 2.07 Days Defined
- a) Any reference to "days" will mean calendar days unless noted otherwise (exclusive of designated Statutory Holidays).
  - b) Any reference to "business days" will mean Monday through Friday from 9:00 am to 5:00 pm (exclusive of designated Statutory Holidays).
  - c) Any reference to "working days" will mean days scheduled to work.

ARTICLE 3 - MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

- 9.02 The Employer reserves the right to discipline up to and including discharge any Employee who participates in activities in violation of this Article and the Union agrees to repudiate any such activity forthwith and do all in its power to ensure that its members resume their employment obligations.

ARTICLE 10 - GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

- 10.02 Any claim by an Employee, the Union or Employer pertaining to a violation of the Ontario Human Rights Code, the Labour Relations Act, 1995, as amended or replaced from time to time or the Employment Standards Act, 2000, as amended or replaced from time to time may be the subject of a grievance which shall be processed in accordance with the grievance procedure.
- 10.03 Should differences arise as to the interpretation, application administration, or alleged violation of the provisions specifically mentioned in this Agreement, such differences shall be adjusted according to the following steps in the order named. Any adjustments so made shall be final and binding upon both parties and the Employee concerned. The term "grievance" as used in this Agreement shall mean a complaint by either party to this Agreement alleging violation of this Agreement. Such grievance must be covered by specific provisions of this Agreement and complaints with reference to matters not included in this Agreement shall not be subject to the grievance or arbitration procedures.

10.04 Grievance Steps

Informal Step:

It is understood that the intent of the parties is to resolve all complaints promptly, efficiently and amicably. An Employee or the Union has a complaint they shall refer it to the complaining Employee's immediate Supervisor or designate within ten (10) working days of the event giving rise to the concern, or from when the Employee should have reasonably become aware of the event in question. The Supervisor shall reply to the Employee, giving the answer to the complaint or question within five (5) working days from date of submission. If the complaint is not settled within ten (10) working days thereafter, then the following steps of the Grievance Procedure may be invoked:

Step 1:

If the matter is not resolved during the Informal Step, the Employee with the assistance of their Steward may submit a grievance which must be in writing, identifying the grievor, the Articles of the Agreement alleged to have been violated and have been signed by the Steward and be given to the Employee's Supervisor or Manager. The Supervisor or Manager will render their decision in writing within ten (10) working days. Failing settlement then:

Step 2

Within ten (10) working days following receipt of the Supervisor or Manager's written decision, the grievor through their Steward may request in writing that the Director, Human Resources or Designate arrange, within ten (10) working days, for a meeting with the grievor, their Steward and/or Union Representative. The party responding to the grievance shall reply in writing within ten (10) working days of the meeting. The parties shall attempt to resolve the grievance and no discussions at the meeting or during the grievance procedure may be used against the other party at any subsequent arbitration hearing except where either party alleges that an agreed settlement has not been affected.

Non-Binding Mediation

During the ten (10) working day period following receipt of the Director, Human Resources' or designate's decision from Step 2, the parties may agree to a mediation process. Where this occurs, the mediator will be selected by mutual agreement. The mediator's expenses shall be shared equally by the parties.

Where agreement on mediation is not reached, or where the mediation process does not result in a settlement, the grievance may, within ten (10) working days be submitted to arbitration.

10.05 Policy Grievance

A Policy Grievance arising directly between the Employer and the Union concerning the interpretation, application or alleged violation of the Agreement shall be originated under Step 2 within ten (10) working days of the event giving rise to the grievance becoming known, or ought reasonably to have become known. The nature of the grievance, the remedy sought, and the Article or Articles of the Agreement which are alleged to have been violated must be set out in the grievance. Failing settlement under Step 2 within ten (10) working days, the grievance may be submitted to arbitration in accordance with Article 12.

10.06 Employer Grievance

The Employer may submit a written grievance to the Union at Step 2 of the grievance procedure within ten (10) working days after the circumstances giving rise to the grievance have occurred or should have reasonably become known to the Employer. If the grievance is not resolved pursuant to the mutual satisfaction of the conferring parties within ten (10) working days, it may be referred to arbitration in the same way as the grievance of an Employee.

10.07 Group Grievance

Where more than one (1) Employee has the same grievance, and each Employee would be entitled to grieve separately, the Union may present a group grievance and such written grievance shall be originated under Step 2 within ten (10) working days after the circumstances giving rise to the grievance have occurred or ought reasonably to have come to the attention of the Employees or the Union and the time-limits set out with respect to that Step shall appropriately apply.

- 10.08 Time limits contained in the grievance procedure shall be considered mandatory and shall be binding. Should the Employer fail to observe the time limit specified, the grievance shall be automatically advanced to the next step. Should the Union fail to comply with the time limits specified, the grievance shall automatically be deemed abandoned. The time limits set forth in this Article may be extended by mutual written Agreement, provided that such extension for any one (1) grievance shall not be a precedent or waiver of the time limits for any subsequent grievances.
- 10.09 A grievance filed pursuant to Article 10 shall state the exact nature of the grievance, the act or acts complained of, the date of the alleged violation(s), the identity of the Employee(s) who claims to be grieved, the specific Article or Articles of this Agreement that have allegedly been violated and the remedy sought.

ARTICLE 11 - DISCHARGE OR SUSPENSION

- 11.01 Any Employee, other than a probationary Employee, who believes that they have been discharged or suspended without just cause may submit a written grievance at Step 2 of the grievance procedure within ten (10) working days of the discharge or suspension. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a probationary Employee who alleges they have been discharged in violation of Article 15 of this Agreement may submit a written grievance at Step 2 of the grievance procedure within ten (10) working days of the discharge.
- 11.02 No Employee, other than a probationary Employee, will be discharged or disciplined without just cause, and such cause will be provided in writing to the Employee with a copy to the Secretary of the Union. The employment termination or discharge of a probationary employee will not be the subject of a grievance or arbitration, subject to the Ontario Human Rights Code.
- 11.03 Disciplinary letters shall be removed from an Employee's personnel file three thousand three hundred thirty six (3336) hours following receipt of such disciplinary letter provided that the Employee's record has been discipline free for such three thousand three hundred thirty six (3336) hours. An absence in excess of thirty (30) working days will result in an extension of the three thousand three hundred thirty six (3336) hour period and such extension will be equal to the length of the leave (calculated on the basis of seven (7) hours a day of absence, pro-rated for part-time employees). Once removed the said letters shall not be relied upon in support of discipline or discharge and shall be destroyed. Article 11.03 shall not apply to discipline related to health and safety violations including but not limited to client abuse or neglect.
- 11.04 Discipline may include verbal warning, written warnings, suspension with or without pay.
- 11.05 An Employee will be offered a union Steward at any meeting with the Employer which is disciplinary in nature. If a union Steward is not available, an Employee may select an alternate Steward to be present during the meeting. Reasonable notice shall be given to the Employee and the Union.
- 11.06 A Steward of the Union who attends a disciplinary meeting will not suffer loss of pay for the time in attendance at the meeting. It is understood that time beyond the Steward's regular working hours will be compensated at straight time.

- 11.07 Upon written request, an Employee may review their personnel file in the presence of the Employer within three (3) working days. An Employee shall have the right to make copies of any material contained in their personnel file.
- 11.08 Where the Employer issues discipline to an Employee, a copy of the discipline notice will be given to the Employee and to the Steward.
- 11.09 Performance appraisals which are to be filed in the Employee's personnel file, shall be shown to the Employee in advance. An Employee who objects to their performance appraisal may attach a statement to the appraisal setting out the objection and such statement shall be appended to the performance appraisal.

ARTICLE 12 - ARBITRATION PROCEDURE

- 12.01 Where a difference arises between the parties relating to the interpretation, application, administration or alleged violation of this Agreement, including any question as to whether a matter is arbitrable, or where an allegation is made that an Employee has been unjustly disciplined, either of the parties may, after exhausting the grievance procedure set forth in Article 10 of this Agreement, notify the other party within ten (10) business days of the conclusion of Step 2 of its desire to submit the grievance to a single Arbitrator. If a written request is not received within ten (10) business days after the decision under Step 2 is given, the grievance shall be deemed abandoned.
- 12.02 The arbitrator shall be without jurisdiction to substitute its judgement for that of management where management's rights are not specifically restricted by this Agreement save where specifically permitted to do so, and the arbitrator will be without jurisdiction to make any decisions inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement or to alter, modify or amend any part of this Agreement or substitute any new provisions in lieu thereof.
- The decision of the arbitrator shall be final, binding and enforceable on all parties.
- 12.03 The parties shall jointly bear the expenses of the arbitrator. Each party will bear its own expense with respect to any arbitration proceeding.
- 12.04 The Employer will provide leave without pay for grievors and necessary witnesses to attend Arbitration hearings.

ARTICLE 13 - SENIORITY

- 13.01 Probation

A newly hired Employee will be considered on probation and therefore subject to termination or lay-off at the Employer's discretion for a period of six (6) months worked, provided that a probationary Employee may not be so terminated or laid off in violation of Article 15 of this Agreement. Upon satisfactorily completing the probationary period, an Employee will be placed on the seniority list and their seniority shall date from the date of their last date of hire.

- 13.02 a) Seniority shall consist of any Employee's continuous time worked with the Employer in the bargaining unit from the Employee's last date of hire. A part-time Employee shall have their seniority calculated and ranked with full-time Employees on the basis of thirty-five (35) hours worked by the part-time Employee being equivalent to one (1) week worked by the full-time Employee. Seniority rights as created by this Agreement exist only to the extent expressed herein.

- b) The Employer shall maintain a seniority list showing the date upon which each Employee's service commenced. An up-to-date seniority list shall be sent to the Union President and Recording Secretary and posted on the main bulletin board in July of each year.

Employees may challenge their seniority date for a period of one (1) month after posting. If no challenges are received, the seniority list as posted shall be deemed to be correct. However, an Employee who is absent when the list is so posted shall have one (1) month from the date of their return to work to challenge the seniority list and if they fail to do so, the seniority list as posted shall be deemed to be correct.

- 13.03 Temporary assignments of Employees of up to six (6) months may be made to cover needs such as vacancies due to periods of disability, sick leave, leaves of absence, vacations, emergencies, sudden increases or decreases in work load and similar absences or operational needs without regard to the seniority provisions of this Agreement. In making such assignment of an Employee, the Employee's Supervisor will consult with the Director, Human Resources/designate and the Employee to determine the feasibility of such assignment in regard to the work priorities of the Employee's position. Employees who are temporarily assigned hereunder to a position that is higher in classification as set out in the Wage Grid in Schedule "A" Salary Range which is paid at a rate higher than their normal rate shall receive pay at that higher job rate for all hours worked performing the temporary assignment. Employees who are temporarily assigned hereunder to a position that is lower in classification in the Wage Grid in Schedule "A" Salary Range which is paid at a lesser rate than their normal position shall continue to receive the rate of pay for their normal position for such time as they are so temporarily assigned.

- 13.04 An Employee will lose their seniority and be deemed to have terminated their employment for any of the following reasons:

- a) If they resign and do not withdraw the resignation within twenty four (24) hours;
- b) If they are discharged and such discharge is not reversed through the grievance procedure;
- c) If they fail to notify the Employer of their intention to resume work for the Employer within five (5) calendar days following the date on the written notice of recall from the Employer sent by registered mail to the Employee's last known address or fails to report for work within five (5) calendar days from such notification or fourteen (14) calendar days where it is necessary for the Employee to provide their notice of resignation from a job with another Employer, except for reasonable cause;
- d) If they fail to report to work at the expiration of a leave absence or vacation unless a reason satisfactory to the Employer is given;

- e) If they absent themselves from work without notifying the Employer unless reasonable cause is established for both the absence and lack of notification;
  - f) If they are engaged in gainful employment with another Employer which adversely affects their performance in their position with the Employer or is prejudicial to the interests of the Employer;
  - g) If they are off work by reason of illness or injury for twenty-four (24) consecutive months;
  - h) If they are employed for an agreed term of employment, at the end of such agreed term;
  - i) If they do not work at least one (1) shift per month, provided such shift is available. For the purpose of this clause, "shift" is defined as a full day as scheduled and excludes training, meetings and other organizational events. This Article 13.04(i) does not apply to an Employee who is on an approved leave of absence.
- 13.05 An Employee must keep the Employer advised and updated as to the reason for any absence from work and make arrangements with the Employer for their return to work.
- 13.06 It shall be the duty of Employees to notify the Employer promptly and in writing of any change of their address. If an Employee shall fail to do this, the Employer will not be responsible for failure of a notice to reach such Employee.
- 13.07 The Employer agrees that it will not transfer an Employee to a position outside of the bargaining unit without the Employee's consent.
- Non-bargaining unit Employees may apply through the job posting procedure for a vacant position in the bargaining unit. Their applications will be considered as external to the bargaining unit.
- In the event of a layoff, no Employee permanently outside of the bargaining unit shall be entitled to use their bargaining unit seniority to displace current bargaining unit Employees.

ARTICLE 14 - JOB POSTING, PROMOTION AND TRANSFER

- 14.01 a) In cases of promotion or demotion, permanent transfer, lay-offs, and recalls, the Employer shall be guided by the following factors:
- i) Seniority;
  - ii) The requirements of the job;
  - iii) Skill, ability, efficiency, education and qualifications as these relate to requirements of the job.
- b) Only where two (2) or more Employees are judged to be relatively equal on the basis of the factors set out in 14.01 a) iii) seniority shall prevail.
- 14.02 If it becomes necessary for the Employer to fill a permanent vacancy in a position in the bargaining unit, then such vacancy shall be posted for five (5) business days to provide Employees with an opportunity to apply for the vacant position, which must be done in writing to the Employer. The notice shall be dated and shall contain a summary of the requirements of the job and the salary range. The application shall be dated and the Employer shall only be required to consider applications which are received by the Director, Human Resources during the period the notice is posted. The Employer, in filling posted vacancies for which Employees apply in accordance with this Article, shall make its decision in accordance with Article 14.01.

Where advance notice is not possible, Employees shall contact their Manager or Manager on Call as soon as possible.
- 21.05 In situations where illness or crisis occurs in the immediate family as defined in Article 21.01 which requires a full-time Employee to be absent, the Employee will be granted up to three (3) working days' sick leave per occurrence to a maximum of nine (9) working days per calendar year and such hours shall be charged against the Employee's accumulated sick credits. ### Re: Use of Volunteers

between
RECONNECT COMMUNITY HEALTH SERVICES
and
CUPE and its LOCAL 3358

The Employer and Union value the contributions of volunteers towards the goals of the Employer and agree that volunteers will not cause any reduction in hours to regular full-time Employees.

Where the funding for a function is cut and it is necessary to lay Employees off, the Employer will consult with the Union to consider options.

If options to continue the employment of the affected Employees have been exhausted, then the option of using volunteers to fill the function may be considered.

LETTER OF UNDERSTANDING*Re: Enhanced vs. Non-Enhanced

between
RECONNECT COMMUNITY HEALTH SERVICES
and
CUPE and its LOCAL 3358

The Employer received feedback from the bargaining unit members that many staff wish to have more consistent hours of work.

In response to that feedback, the Employer implemented an enhanced program for Personal Support Workers ("PSWs") consisting of a schedule based on seventy (70) hours of work over a two (2) week period, in accordance with Article 17.01.

Therefore, the parties agree as follows:

- "enhanced" is a term used to refer to PSWs who have been hired to and/or have committed to work seventy (70) hours over a two (2) week period; and
- "non-enhanced" refers to PSWs who work less than seventy (70) hours over a two (2) week period.

The reference to "enhanced" or "non-enhanced" does not impact an Employee's status as part-time or full-time under the CBA, as defined in Article 2.06.

The availability and offer of the enhanced program is at the discretion of the Employer and may be amended, expanded or discontinued at any time.
